Chocolate cookies, berries, walnuts and bark on the nose of this full-bodied red. It's tannic and chewy but juicy as well, with a ripe and tasty finish. Drink from 2027.

Blackberry compote off the stove with a handful of red currants thrown in at the last second just to wake it up, fresh earth and graphite drifting underneath. The palate goes dark and generous, black plum jam and that sticky pomegranate gummy hit, the tannins round and easy, the acidity keeping it alive. There is a deeper savory story still to come. Drink now – 2040.
