This savory red has aromas of raspberries, mushrooms and caramelized walnuts on the nose. It's full-bodied with lightly rustic tannins and a gently chewy finish. Try in 2027.

Like finding a pot of plums and boysenberries slowly cooking down on the stove with sweet spices, a vase of day old violets sitting nearby adding something warm and soft to the air. The palate is plump and easy until the Sangiovese reminds you it is still in the room, a lift of acidity and tart cherry pulling everything into focus.
