SAIA 2020

NERO D'AVOLA SICILIA D.O.C.

100% NERO D'AVOLA

Saia, whose name comes from the Arabic word for irrigation canals built centuries ago to collect rainwater, pays tribute to Sicily's rich winemaking heritage and the ancient Alberello method.

- From 40-year-old Nero d'Avola vines, grown in southeastern Sicily.
- Alberello-trained (bush vines) for low yields and intense concentration.
- Grown on white calcareous and black sandy soils, near the sea for ideal microclimate.
- Manual care of each plant, minimal intervention and natural cultivation.
- Elegant, well-structured and complex, with fine tannins and great aging potential.
- A true expression of Sicilian terroir and tradition.
